

OSTS ST. PATRICK'S DAY SUPPER

y decorated room welcomed everyone erful pot luck supper at the Commuh. The supper was held in the ll for St. Patrick's Day when over 90 tended.

ew families in Terrace Bay were the uests. A big mouthwatering selection as served, with the guests being am-he quantity of food that was prepared nd Peter McKague said Grace and every yed a wonderful meal of their choice. ticed that many of the young males the more fancy dishes and salads to r plates up with a more solid weiner with buns smothered in butter. It rns out that just enough of every-m fancy food down to tempting dess-rought to the Pot Luck Suppers. the meal while the ladies of the ard cleaned away, Mrs. Margaret as getting ready her Joy and Hosanna o entertain. Reverend McKague said ds of welcome and invited everyone n a social hour of singing. The Joy na Singers sang a few of their songs, one joined in later and had great 'rounds' with the help of the choir. est folks in the audience were invit-do a cute song that they had learned by the applause they received it . McKague has some up and coming you-members. Accompaniment for the songs Anderson, the choir pianist, Carla and Carolyn Vanderkam on the piano McKague, auto harp and Diane Jones ung choir members are very talented be attending a musical festival in ay on April 18-20. Plans are being a group of them to attend a two week p in Manitoba in June with Mrs.

WE WANT TO MAKE YOU A STAR

We know you're out there.
You make a song come alive and you play an instrument like nobody for miles around.
Now, here's your chance for fame.
NORA. Northern Ontario Recording Awards.
Categories range from contemporary to country to classical. If you or your group win, you've got a chance at the top prize: a recording contract.
For entry forms and details, write, NORA Awards, c/o CBC Mid-Canada Unit, Box 500, Station A, Toronto M5W 1E6.
Write soon. Closing date for entries: June 28.

NORA

Sponsored by Carling O'Keefe through the Northern Broadcasting System and CBC Radio.