airman noted that the trend now is to ne Senior Citizens to remain in their homes with services such as Meals-on-Wheels, home care, and if needed, small Residential Care Homes with up to twenty beds. These services will take a lot of planning especially integrating with services that are already available in the communities. Mr. Harness finished he remarks by stating that his service on the Board had been rewarding to him, and he felt that the new Board would also gain from working with Senior Citizens.

The meeting dealt with many questions from the delegates on the operations of the Board.
The Administrator submitted a pamphlet outlining expenditures and receipts of the operations in 1974 and also contained data in relation to the area served. There were forty-eight new admissions during 1974, twenty-four to Birchwood Terrace and twenty-four to Pine-wood Court. The average age of Residents in the Homes as of December 31st is seventy-eight years. One of the oddities of the area is that there are more males over the age of sixty than females. This is directly opposed to what it is in the rest of Ontario where females over sixty out number males.

The inaugural meeting of the Board will be held in early April with the election of officers as the first item on the agenda.
