

HAPPY HOOKERS RECEIVE CERTIFICATES

Mary-Fay Green, their instructor, had the pleasure of presenting certificates to members of the Happy Hookers, the rug-hooking group in Schreiber at a recent meeting, followed by a social evening in Gladys Hamilton's home.

The Club is sponsored by Confederation College, and this is the first time they've awarded craft course certificates, in Schreiber.

The local group, 28 in number, meet every Tuesday evening for two hour work sessions, in a course of 20 lessons taken from September to March.

They buy their already stamped burlap material, for hooking, but they do their own dying of material used in the hooking, with most satisfactory and original results in the coloring.

In addition to rugs they are hooking stool and long bench covers, tote bags, pictures, coasters and hot dish pads for table use.

Typical of Schreiber groups age has no bearing on the interest, the club having three sets of mothers and daughters enrolled - Marg Kragero and daughter Sandra Quinton, Gladys Hamilton and daughter Joyce Gilmore, Myrtle Gordon and daughter Glorie Miller.

Certificates awarded were for completed basic and intermediate rug hooking to Hazel Bailey, Flora Bryson, Marcella Cebrario, Lilian Christie, Vieno (Winnie) Clemens, Pat Cook, Mildred D'Arcy, Bonnie Dye, Inge Ellicott, Myrtle Gordon, Glorie Miller, Betty Anne Klassen, Margaret Kragero, Lila Morrow, Sandra Quinton, June Sisson, Beulah Speziale, Margaret Spillane, Joan Stewart, Helen Tripp and Muriel Walton.

Completed Advance 1 Rug hooking certificates were presented to Joyce Gilmore, Gladys Hamilton, Diane Mather, Inez McKevitt and Marjorie Spacek.
