28 hours per week during the school year.

Recently the Federal Govt. announced an increase in the federal minimum wage to $2.60 per hour. This caused some concern and confus -ion. The federal govt. exercises it's author -ity over federal employees and those employers whose business overlaps from province to province. These include interprovincial trans -portation, employees who operate boats or ships, bank employees, etc. This affects about 19,000 employees.

Regular working hours in general industry are eight hours in a day and 48 in a week. Where an employee works more than 44 hours in a week the employee must be paid one and onehalf times his regular rate of pay for each hour worked after 44 hours in a week.

Employees are entitled to seven public holidays with pay: New Year's Day, Good Friday Victoria Day, Dominion Day, Labour Day, Thanks -giving Day and Christmas Day. Public holiday benefits apply to full time, part time and student employees. If a qualified employee does not have a substitute arrangement and works on a public holiday, the employee must be paid at least time and one-half the regular rate for those hours worked plus their regular days pay for that public holiday.

If you have questions regarding this or any other subject call Northern Affairs at 229-II53 or visit the office at the Peninsula Building, Marathon, Ontario.
