

PARKS AND RECREATION TO SPONSOR PLAY

The Schreiber Parks and Recreation Committee will sponsor the three act comedy "Nothing Will Be Revealed" on Wednesday, April 30th at 8 p.m. in the Lake Superior High School, Schreiber.

The play is a comedy done in the Commedia dell'arte style utilizing masks, mime and music as well as easily identifiable characters. All ages will enjoy the antics of the famous harlequin, the manipulations of the old miser Pantalone, the bravado of the bold Capitano and the innocense and inner sense of the lovely Isabella.

These and other characters are created by this four member company indigenous to North-western Ontario. Their aim to bring live theatre to various communities in the region.

The ticket prices are at a vary moderate price, available at the door. In addition, by arrangement with the Kaministiquia Theatre Laboratory, one half of the procceds from ticket sales will be returned to the community through the local sponsor.

C.W.L. INSTALLS NEW EXECUTIVE

At their April 13th meeting, the new executive of the Schreiber Catholic Women's League were installed by Father O'Flaherty: Mrs. Laurette McParland, president; Mrs. Teresa Stortini, first vice president; Mrs. Phyllis McParland, second vice president; Mrs. Irene Borutski, recording secretary; Mrs. Marion Henri, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Simonne Connelly, treasurer.

Mrs. Val Bourke suggested the daily rosary during May be held in the evening instead of the afternoon.

Mrs. McParland reminded members that April 26th is the feat of Our Lady of Good Council.

It was decided to hold a bakeless bake sale in the near future.

Mrs. Norah McGuire reminded members of the Right to Life meeting.

Mrs. Rita McGrath stated she had received a letter from the program "The Church Today" requesting financial assistance.

Retiring president, Mrs. Lucette Chicoine thanked those who had worked at the St. Patrick's Day supper, and, Mrs. Claire Power who had made and donated the quilt.

TOYLAND ON ICE FEATURED AT SKATING CARNIVAL

The Schreiber Figure Skating Club, under the direction of Joan LeBlanc, their instructor, staged both an evening and matinee performance, attended by a large and appreciative audience.

The program, entitled Toyland on Ice was enhanced by a background of large toy characters, made by grade 8 students of Holy Angels School, encouraged by Mrs. Anne Wilde.

The costumes which were particularly attractive, were as usual, designed and made by the mothers of the skaters and added greatly to the various acts, which included: Little Girl, Tracy Wilde, The Toys Come to Life, Alphabet Blocks, Bouncing Ball by Tammy Walton; Rag Dolls, Raggedy Ann and Andy Doll Party, Dolls, The Wooden Soldiers, Little Drummer Girl, Denise St. Jean; Ballerina Doll, Susan Johnson; Dancing Dolls, Jill-in-the-Box, Melody Ukrainian; Candyman, Linda Ross; Toys! Toys! Toys! with Joan LeBlanc in the finale as the Shop-keeper displaying her toys.

The antics of the three clowns, Lawrence McParland, Grant Paradis and Lloyd Fairservice drew great laughter as their inept skating, horrendous expositions continued pg. 15
