GUIDING ON THE MOVE

Two Senior Girl Guides of Terrace Bay have been chosen for Guiding on the Move. They will do the in Province travel. They will meet with Guides from P.E.I. and two Guides will be joining the group from Luxembourg. The trip will take them to Sault Ste. Marie Over to Manitoulin Island and down to Toronto where lots of events have been planned.

One of these is a free day at the C.N.W. and a very exciting day at Nathan Phillips Square where a "Squishero" will be held to end off the Guiding on the Move travel.

Hundreds of Guides and Leaders will attend the "Squishero", the meeting got its name from the almighty squeeze that is expected from this wind-up meeting in Nathan Phillips Square.

TERRACE BAY LEGION FISH DERBY

The deadline for members to enter the Derby is May 14th. Entry fee $2.00 payable at the Legion or to E. Kettle.

The Derby runs to September and fish in 4 or 5 categories can be entered at the Legion. We will have a big poster at the Legion listing the name of the person entering, fish and the weights of the fish.

So come on you fishermen and women, enter the Derby - enter as many fish as you want - and catch a prize at the end of the season.

Fish caught prior to May 14th may be entered as long as the $2.00 fee is paid.
