WESTERN ONTARIO WOMENS ART FESTIVAL western Ontario is a distinctive and rt of Canada. Our art is reflection n lives, our own land. It must be the basis of our vision of ourselves, s and our reality. We can no longer dgement of our arts and artists to be concepts formed elsewhere". was the word given to the steering com-or the Northwestern Ontario Womens Art at a meeting Monday evening. It came field organizers for the festival, ust returned from a whirlwind tour of es east and west of Thunder Bay. mack and Margaret Smith, well known cal arts field, reported that women the region are enthused about the up-estival and determined to make it a ession of the artistic conceptions of ern Ontario Women.
 gs have been held in most major cen-m Marathon to Kenora, with more to be held to take in every reachable community.

The Arts Festival is planned for June 2nd, to 8th in Thunder Bay. A steering committee, plus several sub-committees, have been formed with more to come.

Judges for the festival will be chosen for their achievement and prestige in the Canadian Art World, plus their knowledge of Northwestern Ontario.

Headquarters for the organization will be at Knox United Church, Pruden Street, in Thunder Bay South. Mrs. Janet Myers will be festival secretary, with Mrs. Millie Fiorito acting as co-ordinator.

Margaret Smith issued a plea for more willing hands. "A lot of women, whether artists or not, are needed to help make this festival a success", she said.

For more information phone 577-7343.

The United Church Women held a most success-ful tea and bake sale on April 24th with the following working - Beth Macadam, Marlene Doig, Aili Lehto, Bern Jacomb, Myra Holmes in the kitchen, Marg Nesbitt serving desserts and Annie Niemi, Winnie Clemens and Margaret Spillane at the backing counter.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Shepiro are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Welbourne and other relations.
