TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

Armand is 13, tall and slim with blonde hair, brown eyes and fair skin. He is in good health and wears glasses for near-sightedness.

French Canadian in descent, Armand speaks both French and English, so he could fit into a home where either language is spoken. A bilingual family would be ideal, but most vital is a family full of warmth and love.

Armand lacks confidence in himself so the best thing for him would be if he can become somebody's cherished son in a setting where he will have brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, cousins, grandparents. With all those people to love him he will certainly begin to feel he is a worthwhile person.

Armand is a slow learner, now in opportunity class. He is doing better this year than ever before and will take an occupations course in high school. He works well in school — with a keen interest in woodworking, his ambition is to be a carpenter.

Though he has been a loner, Armand has recently joined Scouts where he thoroughly enjoys the program and the association with other boys.

Since Armand gets on well with children of all ages, he can fit into a family as the oldest, the youngest or somewhere in the middle.

To inquire about adopting Armand, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, consult your local Children's Aid Society.
