

CHIMO PRESENT FAREWELL GIFTS

Birch presided for the April meeting of the Chimo Club in Schreiber, reporting the conference he had attended in Thunder Bay, organized by Jack Williams and very helpful on senior citizens' problems, and had offered to act as a volunteer.

He agreed to hold the May meeting in Terrace in Terrace Bay and to invite the Rock Golden Age Club to visit Schreiber during Senior Citizens' Week - June 15th. A letter was received from Joe Gagnon, stating they have organized a club, membership and are now looking for a club room and encouraged by members of several organizations.

Address cards for wallets, noting name, address, allergy, etc. were distributed and will be available to other senior citizens. It was decided no further advertising signs be placed in the Club windows, and tickets for raffles, must be handled by organizations sponsoring them. In his closing remarks, social convener, thanked Alice for acting for her during her vacation and said she would shortly organize a project.

Jacomb reported sending cards for occasions. Stokes, M.L.A. and Mrs. Stokes were present as guests.

Financial statements, as read by Cyril and Helen Wallace, and the minutes of the previous and regular meeting, by Bea McCuaig were accepted.

Chadwell reported Louella Gin had won the coveted tea cloth.

Members expressed their admiration of the performance of hooking shown by the Happy Hookers and gratefully acknowledged the cash contribution for use by the club.

Farewell gifts were presented to George and Aili Lehto, leaving to live in Sault Ste. Marie and to Paddy Newton, leaving to live in Thunder Bay.

The social program began with a Barbershop Quartet, loud, but enthusiastic, sang several songs, accompanied by Inez McCuaig. The audience convulsed with laughter at the performance covering at least fifty years in the industry.

This Hit number was done by George Campbell, Johnny Spillane and Bill Spillane. A photo next column and was followed by a performance by Joe Campbell and Paddy Newton of long ago ballads.

Prizes in other contests were won by Arnold and Bill Gerow. The usual pot luck dinner proving to be a banquet was served.

Pictured below - George Birch, Paddy Newton, Aili and George Lehto. Photos by I. McCuaig

CHARLIE SIMMER GUEST SPEAKER AT HOCKEY BANQUET

The event began as the annual Minor Hockey banquet in the Legion, but when the guest speaker entered, greeted by whoops of delight, from the over 100 boys, it immediately became Charlie Simmer Day!

With the hockey star obviously pleased with the welcome.

Corp. Don Burton, was the M.C. introducing those at the head table, after Charlie Simmer Reg Bailey and Ted Wilson (past presidents), Bordon Ross, Curtis Martin, Mrs. Wendy Martin, Mrs. Ruth Mulligan, (secretary), Cos Commisso, Paul Hendrick, Darlene Fummerton and Cathy Cook (Schreiber's first girl coaches), Terry McParland, Ray Wilson, Kenny Ross, Jody Davis of Schreiber with Frank Sechesky and Don Davies of Terrace Bay.

Charlie described his climb to his present position on California Golden Seals - from minor hockey in Terrace Bay, his home town to

continued page 15