A state of lethargy and indifference crisscrosses your chart. Don't put your job, project or routine tasks aside, and think you can get away with it—you won't.

A few changes, you've long held in mind, will take place, now! One other thing, you're prone to wanderlust. Stay in bounds with affairs of the heart.

During this cosmic cycle, someone you've considered as being conceited might surprise you. Actually, a member of the opposite sex is trying to build a social bridge—leading to you.

This week, when you hear, "It's strictly between you and me." Beware! One of your routine associates will be recruiting for a malicious scandal.

You're entering a phase when it's going to be tough enough to understand yourself...without expecting someone else to know what you have in mind. So, don't "test" people.

For most members of your sign, a series of subtle events or, simply, one word leading to another, could parlay into material gains. Look for a pleasant surprise.

With you, Libra, it's a case of mischief on the march—stay out of someone else's love quarrels. Otherwise, you face some unpleasant quarrels.

Many under your sign might find it hard to establish a pleasant romance pattern. Instead of the usual emotional approach, try a little persuasive logic.

Suddenly, you'll discover the someone you have overlooked, has indeed, become very interesting. There should be nice things going, Sagittarius! Have a pleasant week.

Take care, there's a possibility of your sign buckling under too much outside pressure. So, recharge your emotional battery with those pleasantries you have long had in mind.

This week's cosmic cycle gives you a window to see what's in store for your financial future. Keep close tabs on what you hear and what you are promised.

Keep a lid on your long term plans. Don't tip your hand during a casual gossip session. It seems as though your job, task or project might be affected.
