

selling flowers made by the Residents
ood Terrace for Mother's Day. Proco the McCausland Hospital Building
ctured are Heather Saranpaa, Brownie;
icol, buying flowers, and Mindy
rownie.

Brownies selling flowers -
Kim Korzinski
and Janet Chappel.
Photos by Pam Jones.

own displaying the fish caught by
zny. Rainbow trout, 9 lbs., 30" long
. Photo by Pam Jones.

ENT:
ay 26th - L.A. to Guides and Brown-ar meeting, 7:30 p.m. Community
sement.

MUSIC RECITALS

Julie Rattray, music teacher held a recital of her students on April 29th in the Lake Superior Public School.

Photo below - Jennifer Kodila presenting Mrs. Rattray with a bouquet of flowers after the recital.

On May 9th Mr. Peter Vanderkam held a music recital at the Community Church. He is pictured below with some of his students. Mark Vanderkam, Gary Salesse, Ken Churney, Jeff McKague, Randall Kushnieryk and Alan McKague. Photos by Pam Jones.

TERRACE BAY POLICE DEPARTMENT REPORT

Forty-four occurrences were reported for the period May 4th to May 19th.

On May 9th as the result of complaints police conducted an enquiry into violations of Liquor Control Act at the Terrace Bay Beach. No charges were laid and a quantity of liquor was seized.

One accident occurred involving one vehicle with damage estimated at $750.00.

Two charges under the Liquor Control Act and four charges under the Highway Traffic Act were laid.

continued page 15