CARD OF THANKS - I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the people of Schreiber and Terrace Bay for the wonderful kindness shown to me before my departure. It is impossible to name each individual but I would like to mention a few. The Senior Citizen's, The Artificial Ice Group, my immediate neighbours and the United Church Choir, also those responsible for the Farewell Tea in the Anglican Church Hall. Thank you very much. Also a big thank you to all who were so kind to me during my 18 years in Schreiber. You will never be forgotten. I have always enjoyed working with the various organizations and found a number of good friends. I have many wonderful memories to treasure from the North Shore. I sincerely hope the Hospital fund is growing rapidly and it will not be too long till the hopes are realized. If at any time I can help by selling tickets here I will be glad to help and I have quite a few friends who will be glad to help.

To all you good people of Schreiber, Terrace Bay and Rossport I say thank you again and God Bless You All.

- Sincerely, (Pat), Samuel P. Newton
