ur week ahead BY DR. A.W. DAMIS

Forecast Period: June 1 to June 7

19 Because of cosmetics or clothing, there will be a definite improvement in your appearance. Someone, however, who is envious, will tell you otherwise.

20 Don't panic! But, most members of your sign are highly error prone. It would be a good idea to re-read documents and concentrate on what you're writing.

20 You might not admit it—not even to yourself. However, someone new on the scene could cause you to feel somewhat—inferior.

22 Those under your sign, unattached, should have more than the usual amount of romance opportunities. Actually, this should be a good week, all around, for Moonchildren.

22 You're on the threshold of a project that might be beyond your capabilities. It's not a good period to go it alone—seek help and advice.

22 Airing a grievance is one thing; provoking a superior is something else. Anyway, curb the urge to strike back at authority.

22 You'll discover that you can do no wrong; during this cosmic cycle. You might, however, become too flippant with a member of the opposite sex.

21 Long term plans seem to be in the general scheme of things. Don't tip your hand by word or gesture. A friend might betray you, innocently.

21 According to your chart, there seems to be an important phone call or letter that needs to be attended. Take care of it before the weekend.

19 Those under your sign, unattached, should not take a member of the opposite sex for granted. Frankly, the same advice is applicable to at- tached Capricorns.

18 It seems as though you'll be much too concerned about someone else's health or problems. Your sign, according to cosmic cycles, will be "too sympathetic."

20 A very casual meeting, one you could easily overlook, will play an important role in the im- mediate future. Yes! It's a member of the op- posite sex.

of the club; Petite Ray Wood, wearing a gown of blue silk with hat and cigar to match was utterly bewitching as he or she poured the savoury nectar into cups as delicate as him- self of herself? While Gordon Rowlandson, gowned in blue jersey silk with sweetheart neckline and pearls around his or her lux-complexioned throat, was the cynosure of all eyes. Equally charming were the waiters or waitresses; Ed. Cavan- augh, Jack Shaunessy, Monty Paget and Ken Harmon, who daint- ily attired in apron and cap served the guests with prompt- ness and efficiency. Jack Wade with his committee of baby watchers, armed with toys, arrowroot biscuits and knockout drops kept the little dears in perfect peace. Highlight of the bake table was a three storied cake, arrayed like Joseph in a coat of many colours, baked by Jim McLeod of the Hudson Bay Store.
