

STUDENTS AID BUILDING FUND

The Grade seven Class of the Lake Superior Public School held a Candy & Bake Sale with the proceeds to go to the McCausland Hospital Building Fund. A beautiful Rabbit shaped cake was made by Lesley Adey and Tracey Stachiw was won by Charlene Yates.

The students with their teacher Mrs. Dora Trach went down to the Hospital Administrators Office and presented Jerry Nagorski with a bag of money.

Jerry welcomed the $65. all in nickels, dimes and pennies and gave a thank you for the wonderful whole-hearted way in which the money was raised. Karen Usher, Larry Boutilier and Catherine Lang made the presentation on behalf of the class.

A SURPRISE VISITOR TO THE SCHOOLS

Recently the elementary schools in Terrace Bay had a very interesting and unexpected visitor in the classrooms. Due to the kind invitations of the Principals Jim Bishop and Michael Anderson, Mr. George Kumi of Ghana West Africa, a student at Concordie University in the Sir George Williams Campus went in to talk to them on West Africa.
