RECREATION:

Schreiber Parks and Recreation Committee have had a most successful summer program. Committee members are Flora Bryson, Lorraine Huard, Marlene Doig, Heather Vandergraaf, Doris Gauthier, Bill Collinson, Joe King, Tom McGrath, Geoff Lee, Tom Quinton and Peter Speziale with Susan Johnson as director.

The favorable weather increased the swim classes to 106 with regular lessons each weekday.

Linda Fraser, chief instructor and Myrna Gauthier were on lifeguard duty each weekday. Other instructors were Donna Gellert, Barbara Huard, Cindy McKay and Janice Martin.

There are no absentees in Junior Theatre and Reading Activities group, carried on at the public school mornings and afternoons. The instructors Norah and Nancy McGuire, Cathy Maggio and Karen Lamoureux have so sparked the children's interest in ages from 4 to 13 that in a few years Schreiber may again have a Drama Club. So far the children have played using props from a wide variety of donated odds and ends, the Three Little Pigs, Little Red Riding Hood, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs and the Princess Who Couldn't Laugh.

The eight miles cut on the North Superior Hike Trail was an achievement indeed, under the leadership of Tom McGrath who is not only 'at home' in the bush, but a skilled photographer.

Outdoor skills and survival are being taught at White Sand Lake by Randy Lelly, Paulette Perras, Donna Mikeluk and Cathy Cook. The program including map and compass reading survival techniques, canoeing. They have made overnight trips to Long Arm and Lynn Lakes, a four day journey up the Gravel River and are presently on a ten day trip in Quetico Park.

Other activities include a gymnastic clinic planned for August 20th, basketball taught by Wayne Tremblay, a course in photography by Ron Chicoine and a lot of fun being had by young adults in evening sessions in the public school gym.

Another group, ages 4 - 14 are doing a lot of hiking in connection with a playground program - seeing local spots of interest, the Schreiber Falls, the Tower, the new dam, and now planning a trip to the Nor-Shore mine. In addition to hiking the children are learning tie-dyeing, painting and various other crafts.

Donna McGrath, Jocelyn Guillet, Anne Bailey and Jim McGrath are the instructors for this program.

Kirk Fischer is Sports program co-ordinator

At the nomination meeting for Lake Nipigon Riding Progressive Conservative Party held in Nipigon on August 17th, Gino Caccamo of Schreiber was elected on the first ballot.
