Rosalie Anne Kettle is attending Broch University in St. Catherines taking a summer course.

Charles Kettle is attending the Northwestern Hockey School in Noranda, Que. In September he will go to Toronto for a tryout with the Toronto Marlboros.

Recent overnight guests with the Kettle family have been Mr. and Mrs. John Dionne and girls from Thorold, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. Ken Michener and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ellis of Port Colborne, Ont.

In July Mrs. Margaret McKague, with son Jeff and three senior choir members from the Community Church, Susan Barnett, Diane Jones, Carolyn Vanderkam, attended a two week music festival in Neepawa, Manitoba where composer Victor Davis from Winnipeg put in an appearance. The course consisted of daily music, theory, and vocal training with well known experienced tutors Muriel Milgrom and Alfred Dahl.

The three girls were billeted with families in the area and the festival was held in the Neepawa area collegiate. Also in the Collegiate, art, ceramics, drama, childrens programmes and photography courses were held.

The music group put on the Annual Church Service and on the final evening the 9th Manitoba Holiday Festival of Arts 'Showcase' was presented with dozens of displays of crafts and art. The drama productions shown ensembles, bands and choirs participated in a varied programme.

This 'Showcase' concluded two very busy weeks of mixing business with pleasure for these five music loving people from Terrace Bay.
