where he met with Dr. Copeman, of the Department of Health and Jack Stokes, MPP, and returned with their encouragement to secure the approval of the general public which was readily given.

A Capital Fund grant of $55,750.00 of which $12,000.00 is forgivable, and donations amounting to $13,000.00 from various Companies and Associations made the project possible.

The Building houses the Doctor's suite of rooms, the office of the Thunder Bay District Health Association, rooms for a dentist and still not completed, an office for an optometrist and headquarters for the ambulance.

Mr. McParland said another satisfaction in the achievement was in having Mauro Cebrario, who had built the Post Office, present at the ceremony and having his son, Giovanni who now carries on the Family Contracting business, make the renovations required to convert the building for its new purpose in the town.

Councillor N.A. McCuaig, who was in charge of the project echoed Mr. McParland in describing the necessity for the Centre and agreeing on assistance given by Giovanni at their many meetings. Mr. Cebrario was able to convince and satisfy both Dr. Spacek and Mr. McCuaig that due to structure, some of their plans must be dropped or revised.

Jack Stokes, spoke of his pride in seeing the project completed and that it was the perfect example of co-operation. "Little people, in little towns, once they dig their toes in can accomplish almost anything." He added with a smile, once the women are involved then their husbands are forced into direct contributions or, they buy endless numbers of tickets.

Keith Penner, M.P. also congratulated the council and townspeople on their achievement.

Verl Thompson, of Terrace Bay, Industrial Relations Manager, acting for G.L. Puttock, President of Kimberly-Clark of Canada also brought good wishes on the achievement.

Mrs. Jan McEwan, public health nurse, spoke for Michael Reid, M.O.H. and his office staff, in their appreciation of their new quarters.

Councillors Joe King, H.H. Fischer, and Tom Quinton also spoke briefly.

Mrs. Lorette McParland, president of the Catholic Women's League, and Mrs. Jean Crook, president of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion, formally presented gifts of equipment and money made by their organizations.

Dave Daniels, representing the Thunder Bay District Health Association, expressed pleasure in the new quarters, congratulating Schreiber on its determination and co-operation.
