TERRACE BAY GOSPEL ASSEMBLY:

The Terrace Bay Gospel Assembly have had many visitors to their services recently. The first were a group of very talented and dedicated young men and women and the families of John Laari and David Laakso with a musical group called "His Way". David and John are singers in this group.

"His Way" travelled to Finland in 1974 to sing, Minister and Street witness across the country. Their travels were recorded on slides and at the close of the service the congregation were given a tour of Finland with John Laari as tour guide.

"His Way" group will be back in Jan. 76.

The second visitors were Pastor Frederick Lowman and his wife from Thunder Bay. They are at present head of the Ontario Provincial Boys home in Thunder Bay and Frederick came to take the morning and evening services for the assembly.

Mrs. Lowman sang a solo and accompanied herself on the piano at both services.
