

L.A. TO LEGION 109 continued;
It is hoped they will arrive in time for Christmas events. To correct an oversight at the occasion, a donation of tips was made to the girls who had served at the Nov. 11 banquet.

Rental rates for auxiliary kitchen supplies were raised to $5.00 for coffee urns, $2.00 for cutlery and $10.00 for dishes, with the usual agreement that anything broken or mislaid be replaced.

Rena Ross, Beth Macadam, Joyce Richardson and Ida Winters agreed to take care of the Christmas party lunch where there will be an exchange of gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. R.T. Kenney have received word that their son Vincent Kenney of Roanoke, Virginia, the chief chemist of Mohawk Rubber Co. has been appointed Director of the American Chemical Society. Vincent attended elementary school at Rosspport and High School in Schreiber and Terrace Bay and received his B.S. in the University of Windsor.
