TERRACE BAY POLICE REPORT

During the week-ending December 7th members of the Terrace Bay Police Department investigated a total of twenty-five occurrences.

One complaint of wilful damage was reported and is under investigation.

Police were called to intervene with a domestic problem, but found that the trouble had resolved itself on their arrival.

A disturbance at a local business establishment was settled with no charges being laid.

One minor accident occurred involving two vehicles.

Eight charges were laid under the Local Parking By-Law.

Nine enquiries were made through C.P.I.C. Two charges under the Liquor Control Act were laid and one charge against a Thunder Bay man for fraud.
