

LEGION NEWS Cont'd....

Winners of the Bridge Tournament were Jean and Bill Megraw.

Semi finalists in the A event for darts were: Evelyn Knauff and Cam Burgess; Pam Jones and Bob Rodrigue. The winners were Evelyn and Cam with Pam and Bob as runner ups. The semi finalists in the B event were: Rose Marie Thorpe and Pat Jones; Oliver Thorne and John Reynolds. The winners were Rose Marie and Pat with Oliver and John as runner ups.

A delicious lunch was served by the Ladies Auxiliary, Freda Boucher and her committee of Bea St. Louis and Yvonne and Paul Rochon who were kept busy making hamburgers, home made beans and bar sausage.

The Sports Day was a big success and many enthusiastic requests were made to hold one every two months. Conveners, George Churney, Sam Ballentine and helpers, Pam Jones and Jean Megraw thanked everyone who participated and will consider the requests.

At the end of the evening prizes were distributed to all the lucky winners and dancing followed.

WELCOME TO:

Stell and Charles King and Anne Mary from La Pas, Manitoba. Charles works for Montreal Engineering and they live on Strathcona Ave.

PORTRAIT PAINTER

By happy chance, the Schreiber Art Club enjoyed a week of instruction in portrait painting, their instructor being Gord Bongard of Toronto.

They are hopeful he may return for another series of lessons.

Mr. Bongard was in town with his own band, entertaining and when he discovered there was an Art Club in town he volunteered to assist them. The offer was gratefully accepted after seeing his work.

Mr. Bongard is a man of many talents. He inherited both his musical and artistic talents from his family.

Following a car accident in which he was crippled, he became an instructor in psychotherapy but returned to his music and art.
