PROFILE: This month's Profile - Mrs. Joan Bichan - Director of Nursing at the McCausland Hospital.

"Newcomers" to Terrace Bay will see that our Hospital is in very capable hands.

Mrs. Bichan graduated from the Toronto General Hospital School of Nursing. She received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing from London, Ontario.

During World War II, Mrs. Bichan was a Sub-Lieutenant in the Royal Canadian Navy. She served as Charge Nurse in the operating room at Greenock, Scotland and Digby, Nova Scotia.

Mrs. Bichan has had much experience in nursing and as head nurse in gynecology, plastic and neuro surgery. She has instructed in Operating Room procedure at the Toronto General Hospital and was Clinical Coordinator for Operating Room, Intensive Care and Recovery Room.

Prior to coming to Terrace Bay Mrs. Bichan was Clinical Instructor in Staff Education at the University Hospital, London, Ontario.

Mrs. Bichan has now moved into her own home at 646 Superior Avenue.

The Hospital is most fortunate in having a person with such experience, ability and dedication as head of the nursing staff.
