On Friday, February 20th, a group of skaters from the Terrace Bay Figure Skating Club drove to Manitouwadge for an inter-club competition and area test day. They were accompanied by Mrs. Donna Josus, president of the club along with mothers and other interested viewers. Miss Donna Shubaly of Thunder Bay, the club professional, also accompanied her pupils.

This was the second annual North Shore Club competition and included the figure skating clubs from Red Rock, Nipigon, Terrace Bay, Marathon and Manitouwadge. The host club should be highly commended for their hospitality in billeting skaters and mothers and running a well organized and smooth competition.

Skaters from our town who won medals were: Danielle Bougie - gold for Senior Ladies Dance Solo; Cathy Lang - bronze for Pre Juvenile Ladies Singles; Terry Aulenback and Denyse Desrosiers - bronze for Novice Ladies Pairs. Honourable mention goes to Susan Roberts who took fourth place in Pre Novice Ladies Singles and Leslie Josus in Intermediate Dance Solo.

Due to no competitors in Pre Juvenile Mens Solo, Raymond King did an exhibition and received a great deal of applause for an excellent effort. Other competitors were Nancy Gerlach, Jane Colbey Hara and Heather Saranpaa who should be pleased coming in the middle of their flights, considering that they were competing against older skaters and had to go on at a very early hour in the morning.
