

LOCAL CURLING TEAM AT PROVINCIAL PLAYDOWNS

Recently four ladies from the Terrace Bay Curling Club went to Guelph for the Ontario Ladies Provincial Playdowns. The team consisted of Anne Latour, skip; Dene Clancy, second; Mary Hale, third; Mary Claire Kennedy, lead.

The ladies had good games but failed to win. It was an experience for them all to represent North Western Ontario and they thought that all the telegrams, messages and good wishes they received from friends in Terrace Bay made it a worthwhile effort.

LEGION ANNUAL MIXED CURLING BONSPIEL

Saturday, February 28th saw some good curling in the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 223 annual mixed curling bonspiel.

Winners of the "A" event was the Dave Desrosiers rink with the Charles Koski rink as runner-up.

Winners of the "B" event was the George Caron rink with the Harry Bartlett rink as runner-up.

Following a full day of curling at the Terrace Bay Curling Club the curlers held a smorgasbord supper at the Legion Hall, followed by a dance with music by the Commisso Brothers band from Schreiber.

The trophies were donated and presented by Jim Mikus (Shell Oil) Terrace Bay and the prizes were donated by Montreal Engineering and Commonwealth Construction. These were presented by the bonspiel Chairman, Howard Solly.
