

LETTER TO MOTHER Continued

I loved you enough to let you see anger, disappointment, disgust and tears in my eyes.
 I loved you enough not to make excuses for your lack of respect or your bad manners.
 I loved you enough to let you stumble, fall, hurt and fail.
 I loved you enough to let you assume the responsibility for your own actions at six, ten and sixteen.
 I loved you enough to shove you off my lap, let go of your hand, be mute to your pleas and insensitive to your demands.
 ---So you had to stand alone.
 I loved you enough to accept you for what you are, not what I wanted you to be.
 Don't you think this is exactly what it's like? It sure makes you think what it's like to be a mother and what she has to put up with: Now that I don't live at home I can understand a little bit of your position.
 This is just a little something to let you know I think of you, and the rest of my family. Take care.
 Love, Rose
