The 22nd Annual mother and daughter Girl Guide and Brownie Banquet was held at the Royal Canadian Legion Hall with 116 attending. The colours were presented and M.C.'s for the evening were Cadets, Carla Crockford and Diane Jones.

Madame Commissioner, Marilyn Saranpaa welcomed everyone and outlined the Guiding movement in Terrace Bay. Diane and Carla introduced the Leaders of the five units and the Local Association to Guides and Brownies in Terrace Bay. They then introduced guest Cub Leaders, Paulette Gordon and Wanda Aulenbach.

A smorgasbord prepared by the mothers was served by the L.A. to the Royal Canadian Legion Branch #223, who also donated all the desserts, milk and hot drinks for everyone.

This year the entertainment was on the theme "Olympics" with around the world songs, skits and dances.

Working in the kitchen for the Legion Auxiliary was Convenor, Adelaide Beaulieu and her committee of Lillian Belliveau, Dorothy Coupal, Bea St. Louis and Joan Young.

Awards presented were: Brownie of the Year, Pack 1 - Penny Luke presented by Tawny Owl, Barbara Lalonde; Brownie of the Year, Pack 2 - Karen Anderson presented by Brown Owl, Barbara Wise; Guide of the Year - Tracey Stachiw presented by Pam Jones. The highlight of the evening was Cathy Geldreich presenting "All Round Cords" to Anne Crockford, Maureen Pytyck and Tracey Stachiw with the three mothers assisting. Three young Brownies presented a blue carnation to each girl on behalf of the Girl Guides of Canada, Aquasabon District. Madame Commissioner, Marilyn Saranpaa presented Barbara Wise with her Brown Owl's pin.

Attending from Terrace Bay and participating were Helen Almos, Recorder; Sadie Benko, G. Grad. Regent; Yvonne Leclair, Guide; Alma Hart, Sr. Regent. Also attending were Yvonne Vienneau and Dannielle Salesse. Myrna McCuaig joined the women in Thunder Bay.
