

ARTS AND CRAFT SHOW

The Auxiliary to the McCausland Hospital displayed Arts and Crafts in a show at the Terrace Bay Public School on March 13th as part of the Winter Carnival '76.

The show was a success thanks to Terrace Bay and Schreiber residents who brought their hand made crafts including oil paintings, pottery, basket weaving, string and felt art pictures, as well as wood burning articles, quilts, needleworks, knitting and crocheting. Some hand made articles were also donated and sold.

A point of interest was the international display of crafts and costumes from approximately twelve countries.

Displays of drawings and pottery was put on by Mrs. Mary Middaugh, The Birchwood Terrace ladies displayed the craft they do at the Senior Citizen Home. A unique exhibit was put up by Mr. Stan Hodgkiss of his wood lathing.

There were films showed throughout the day by Jaschern Sidhu under the direction of Ann Wilkes which attracted the adults as well as the children, especially when a film of the Construction of the K.C. mill was showed.

The winning posters of the Carnival Poster Contest were displayed.

A bake sale also took place on the same day which was a success. Thanks go to the members of Hospital Auxiliary who donated the baked goods.

Two raffles were made at the end of the day. A leather purse made and donated by Mrs. Marion Burns was won by Mrs. Rita McBride. A Peter Puck cake, baked and donated by Mrs. Faye Figliomeni was won by Mrs. Eleanor DePoala.
