

RATTRAY: Cont'd

Jean (Mrs. Don MacLeod) of Sudbury; two brothers - Hubert, of Schreiber and Russell of Thunder Bay; a sister, Myrtle, (Mrs. George Gordon) of Schreiber; eight grandchildren; two great grandchildren.

Mrs. Rattray, nee Pearl Weaver, was brought as a small child by her parents from Concicon, Ontario, to Schreiber, and had lived here since.

She was a life long member of the United Church and an indefatigable worker in the Ladies Aid - later the United Church Women. Even when she moved to Sudbury in 1969, she always returned to Schreiber with a basket of articles for the Church's annual Fall Fair.

The Order of the Eastern Star, Silver Birch Chapter, of which Mrs. Rattray was a member, conducted their burial service in the King Funeral Home prior to the Church service.

In addition to the many old friends in Schreiber and Terrace Bay attending the funeral were the following relations: Mr. and Mrs. Ross Greenwood and son, Bruce, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cameron and family, of Sault Ste. Marie; Mr. and Mrs. Don MacLeod and family, of Sudbury; Mrs. Dora Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Jody Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miller, of Terrace Bay; Mrs.

Doreen Caccamo, Sherry and Guy Caccamo of Thunder Bay and also Miss Grace Fadden and Mrs. Joe Spavor, also of Thunder Bay.
