ADAPTIVE SWIMMING: Level 1 - Marty Lengyle
Level 4 - Cheryl Holmes

The Playground Leaders this summer were Donna McGrath and Janice Martin. The program was for children age 4 and up. They enjoyed sports, hikes, swimming, sing songs, picnics. Special events such as the overnight camping at Rainbow Falls, frisbee and hula hoop contest and the Binkely and Doinkel puppet show was a complete success.

Another programme was a Playground for Handicapped Children. They had swimming lessons every weekday and were taught arts, crafts and sport skills by their instructor, Giselle Reynolds.

Outdoor skills and survival were taught at White Sand Lake and Walkers Lake by Walter Klassen, Ricky Parent and Mike Powers. The program included map and compass reading, survival techniques, canoeing, water skiing and some overnight camping trips.

Shirley Ross and Jim Wilson were in charge of Tennis Courts this year.

L.I.P. Grants: Applications are now available for any adults in the community wishing winter employment. The local Initiatives Program is sponsored by Manpower and Immigration and enables people or individuals to set up programmes that interest themselves, but will also benefit the community. The programme is mainly to elevate high seasonal unemployment throughout the country. If you are interested, you may pick up an application at the Recreation Office.

ROSSPORT SOCIAL SPECTRUM

Mrs. Lester Legault entertained at a miscellaneous shower on Saturday evening honouring Mrs. Donnie Ray, (Alice Bouchard) a recent bride. The living room and luncheon table was decorated with white and pink streamers and wedding bells. Mrs. Ray was assisted by her sisters, Shirley and Anita to open her many gifts from friends in Rossport, Schreiber and Terrace Bay. She was the recipient of lovely gifts of linens, cutlery, electrical appliances, china and cooking utensils. A delicious buffet luncheon was served and a social evening enjoyed.

George Watts who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Felix Legault, left Sunday for his home in London, Ontario.
