

FRASER SURPRISE PARTY

The utterly successful surprise farewell party given to Larry and Kay Fraser proved that a secret can be kept by an entire community.

The event, held in the curling rink, began with George and Joy Riley taking the Frasers to dinner in the Rossport Inn and afterward suggesting they go on to the rink, where, supposedly, another club was holding an open social evening.

Instead, the Frasers found members of the ladies and men's curling clubs, the Legion and its auxiliary, the Art Club, the U.C.W., and many other friends in the community gathered to wish them well in their new home in Red Rock, where Mr. Fraser will be vice principal in the High School.

On behalf of the crowd there, and others in the community, Joe Figliomeni presented them with matching wallets containing Olympic coins, and a cheque, in token of their good wishes and appreciation of the parts they had played in the community. They also received a corsage and boutonniere as they entered the hall. Mr. Fraser, who had been vice principal of the Lake Superior High School also received a presentation, along with other administrative staff, leaving the schools administered by the Lake Superior Board of Education, at an occasion arranged in Manitowadge.

BUY A FAIRING IN SCHREIBER

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gerow are considering borrowing a tent to use until the United Church Annual Fall Fair is over - their spacious home presently overflowing with articles for the Fair. This is one event which involves the entire community and draws people from the district as faraway as Thunder Bay for both amusement and, to purchase a "Fairing" - an old English expression of a gift purchased at a Fair.

And, for a "fairing" there is almost an unlimited choice - fresh garden produce, house and garden plants, home baking and preserves, home furniture and facilities, a big dinner, (smorgasbord) penny auction and the crowning event, the monster auction, when people buy what their neighbours have discarded - all useable, and variety unbelievable. There's also a Kids Korner with the inevitable balloons, other toys and quick foods. There will also be the booth of articles made by the Association for Retarded Children, a most worthwhile cause.

Due to the closing of the Arena, the event this year will be held in the curling rink as follows: Thursday, September 9 - 7:30 to 10:00 - all items and exhibits on display. Friday, September 10 - Giant Auction - 7:30 to 10:00. Saturday, September 11 - sale of all articles, with all items not sold after 4 p.m. to go for the best offer, smorgasbord supper 5:00 to 6:30 p.m. Penny Auction 7:30 to 9:00 p.m.
