

L.A. TO LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE: The Ladies Auxiliary to the Loyal Order of Moose held their meeting September 7th at 8 p.m. with Senior Regent, Marielle Tardif in chair. Following the meeting a raffle was won by Clara Gould. Lunch was then served by Aline Hart and her committee of Yvonne Rochon and Danielle Salesse.

SCHREIBER SOCIAL SPECTRUM

Recent visitors at the Wes Clemens' home were Ron and Janet Hamilton and their children, Aaron and Jenny and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Pisiak and daughter Catherine of St. Catherines.

Mr. and Mrs. Cy Copps, of Thunder Bay visited Mr. and Mrs. Alex Power en route home from Toronto.

Mike McGuire and Tim Power are on a Cook's Tour of Western Canada, their goal tentatively set as Calgary. The two, after some thought and questioning locally, discovered their problem was not to discover where they had relations to visit, en route, but rather, a place where they had no relations!

Mr. and Mrs. D'Arcy McGuire spent a most interesting vacation this summer, visiting seven countries in Europe as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Geerlandt, in Marcq-en-Baroeural, France. The two wives have been pen pals since they were girls. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rahn, of St. Joseph's Island, the McGuires travelling companions, were eager to locate the family home of Mrs. Rahn's forbears in Wales. They found it, still a handsome building and still being lived in. The residence was the former home of Mrs. Rahn's great grandfather, a major in the British Army, and when he resigned his commission he came to Canada in 1830. Further interest in the story is that Mrs. McGuire, the former Norah Smith, grew up in a house which had been built by Mr. Rahn, on St. Joseph's Island.

Mrs. Alice Potvin is visiting friends in Pen-ticton, B.C.

Winners of the draw at the United Church Fall Fair were: Mrs. Harold Fischer and Mrs. Frank McKenna the sets of four doilies each; Rosalie Kushnieryk, hamper of groceries; Mrs. Bob Mallais, hanging planter; Mrs. George Lengyel, a cut glass vase; Mrs. Gerald Fischer, a silver tray; and Mrs. Edwin Holmes a hand made quilt.

Mrs. Georges Legault of Montreal is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bryson, visiting also her mother, Mrs. Agnes Bryson in Birchwood Terrace and other Bryson relations.

Miss Rhonda Campbell and Rick Sluiter of Mississauga are the guests of Mrs. Tommy Bolan, visiting also with others in the Campbell and Bolan families in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cannon of Winnipeg are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. George Riley.
