STORK CLUB: Congratulations are the order of the day to the following parents: The Cliff Woods now have 3 sons and a daughter since the third son was born on Friday, Sept. 14. The Fred McMillans followed suit by having a boy on Monday, September 17th. They now have 2 boys and 1 girl. (Whaddaya doin' fellas - buildin' a ball team.) The Reg. Fawcetts now have 2 girls. The second daughter arrived on Tuesday, September 18th. (Oh yes, Reg. is building a ball team too - Bea plays for the ladies' team.)

Visitors of the week, renewing acquaintances with all of those people they knew when they were in Terrace Bay a couple of years back are Ruth Bangartt, Kay McKeen, Ina Parker and Jim Nicholson.

Recreation Report: Cont'd from pg. 3 ...

YOGA PROGRAMME:

As advertised previously, two optional sessions are being held (this past Monday, September 20th, and tonight, September 22nd). The Recreation Office will accept registrations for this programme up to and including Monday, September 27th. Further information regarding details of this programme may be obtained by coming to the Recreation Office or calling 825-3542.

This Yoga programme will definitely be held at St. Martin's School gym.

ARENA OPENING DELAYED DUE TO REPAIRS:

Due to the present repairs being carried out in the Terrace Bay arena to meet the requirements of the Ministry of Labour, the start-up of the ice plant and consequently the opening of the arena will be delayed somewhat. At the time of this write-up, it was hoped that the ice plant could be started early next week with the arena being open to the public around October 8th, 9th or 10th.

The Recreation Department will keep the public informed as to plans in this regard.
