

CNIB MOBILE EYE CARE CLINIC VISITS TERRACE BAY

Left to right: Mark Coates, Jane William, Dr. Bob Alexander and Bob Wallwin.

The CNIB Mobile Eye Care Clinic made a visit to Terrace Bay for 2½ days this past week. During that time eighty patients were examined by Dr. Alexander. He commented that some previously undetected eye diseases were discovered including one case of glaucoma. In some of these instances, minor surgery was performed. However, the general condition of the eyes examined was good.

Not many employers offer beginners good pay, plenty of travel and 4 weeks vacation.

The Canadian Armed Forces is not your usual run-of-the-mill job opportunity.

To start with, there's the pay. When you consider how little it costs you for food and lodging, it's easily as much as trainees make in most other jobs. And after you finish training, you start getting regular increases.

Then there's the travel. This is a job that could take you anywhere in Canada — or out of it for that matter.

And finally there's the opportunity to learn. Not just about sophisticated equipment, but about the world and where you fit into it.

Add it all up then ask about immediate vacancies in the Canadian Armed Forces.

Unless you've had a better offer recently.
