

HIGHLIGHTS OF C.W.L. MEETING

Mrs. Mary Fummerton, at the regular October meeting of the Schreiber Catholic Women's League, accepted the convenership of their Christmas tea-bazaar. Her sisters, Mrs. Rita Scott and Nita Cook will assist her.

Mrs. Lorette McParland, the president, thanked Mrs. Fummerton for accepting the important position.

Following the opening prayer, Sister Marvel read an article by Pope Paul on prayer.

The minutes of the last regular and executive meeting, were adopted as read by Mrs. Marion Henre, as was the treasurer's report by Mrs. Marjory Spacek. Mrs. Henri also read the correspondence, many thank you notes and the special letter from India.

Father F.J. Meyer reported on a show on World War 2 which is to be shown, free of charge, in the Odeon Theatre, in Thunder Bay on October 30 at 9 a.m. The film concerns the survival of a family in Holland.

Father Meyer also expressed his concern with vandalism in the Church, amounting to not only vandalism, by sacrilege, since vigil lights were disturbed.

Mrs. Simonne Connelly reported a cheque to the Development of Peace and urged those who could to donate blood during October.

Sister Marvel stated the Rosary is being said at 7:00 daily during October.

Mrs. McParland reminded members of the regional meeting being held in Schreiber on October 13, with Terrace Bay and Marathon C.W.L. members, cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Edna Cocks and Mrs. Alexandria Jacques offered to provide doughnuts, coffee and other drinks for the ones being confirmed on November 21 and their parents or sponsors. Mrs. Lucette Chicoine volunteered to work in the kitchen for the occasion.

Mrs. McParland stated she is going to have a meeting of the "captains" for telephoning, to bring the lists up to date.

Mrs. Simonne Connelly spoke of the concern of observers seeing school children using the railway tracks instead of the subway, as a means of crossing from the south to the north sides of town, urging them to constantly alert children to the hazard involved.

The meeting closed with a prayer by Father Meyer and lunch was served.
