THEATRE HOUR COMPANY:

The Theatre Hour Company visited the Lake Superior High School on Wednesday, October 27, to perform "A Sixties Trip". The morning performance was held in Terrace Bay and the after-noon performance in Schreiber. The drama portion of the programme consisted of excerpts from Edward Albee's "The Sandbox", Harold Pinter's "Revue Sketches", as well as "Dionysus in '69" and "In White America". Each sketch was interspersed with music from the musical "Hair". At the end of the performance the company answered several questions from the audience. From the opening song, "Aquarius", to the closing number of "Let the Sunshine In", the entire presentation was most enjoyable.

VOLLEYBALL:

On October 28th and 29th, the senior and junior boys and girls volleyball teams travelled to Red Rock to compete in the N.S.S.S.A.A. volleyball tournament. Cont'd pg. 12
