

SCHREIBER WOMEN'S INSTITUTE:

At their October Meeting of the Schreiber Women's Institute, members answered the roll call by telling about an early Thanksgiving in their lives.

Motto was "The mask you wear on Halloween is never seen the rest of the year".

Mrs. Anne Todesco presided for the meeting and Mrs. Eirene Harness acted as secretary-treasurer.

Instead of ordering the usual wreath for Remembrance Day Services, it was agreed to send a donation towards one large wreath and have the Institute name placed on it. A card and flowers were sent to a member of long standing, Mrs. Nettie Thrower, a patient in hospital.

Mrs. Annie Niemi presented an interesting paper on Family and Consumer Affairs. She told of dangers of mixing chlorine bleach with other household cleaners such as ammonia, lye, rust remover, vinegar, oven cleaner and toilet bowl cleaners.

Guest speaker, Mrs. Jan McEwen, Public Health Nurse spoke briefly on how the Public Health Service can assist parents and children in a community to maintain good health.

Mrs. Harness read the report of the Area Convention held in Thunder Bay, as prepared by Mrs. W. Clemens who was a delegate.

Members decided to have a bakeless bake sale with the money turned in to the November meeting. Mrs. J. Campbell will also prepare tickets for a Christmas draw of $25. Mrs. Niemi will be in charge of purchasing new locks for the cupboards.

Mrs. Campbell gave a Thanksgiving reading before lunch was served.

A penny auction was planned for the next meeting.
