

PLUMMER:

A memorial service for the late Melville Pringle Plummer was conducted on November 6, 1976, in St. Andrew's United Church in Schreiber by the Rev. Brian Bigelow.

Following the service Mr. Plummer's ashes were interred in Schreiber cemetery.

Mr. Plummer's immediate survivors are his wife, Jean, a brother, Oliver Plummer, of Schreiber; sister Lorna, Mrs. James Goodfellow of Toronto; a stepdaughter, Mrs. J. Tozer and four grandchildren of Antigonish, Nova Scotia.

Mr. Plummer was predeceased by his father in 1913, his mother in 1957 and two brothers, Baden and George.

Mr. Plummer's death occurred in the Cowichon District Hospital, in Duncan B.C. on July 19, 1976.

He was born May 28, 1906, and named after Schreiber's long-time famous Dr. Pringle.

His working years were spent as a telegrapher on the Schreiber division until his retirement on October 8, 1968. In November of that year he and Mrs. Plummer went to live in Duncan, B.C.

Mr. Plummer, "Pring" to his old friends, will live long in the memories of Schreiber for his wit and comically related recollections of early days as an "operator" on the C.P.R.
