

MULLINS:

In loving memory of a dear son and brother, Lanny, who passed away November 22, 1975.

Gone is the face we loved so dear
 Silent is the voice we loved to hear
 Too far away for sight or speech
 But not too far for thought to reach.
 Dear God take a message to Lanny above
 Tell him we miss him and give him our love.

Lovingly remembered and so sadly missed by Mom, Dad and Kevin.

MR. NELSON SMITH GUEST SPEAKER: From pg. 16 ..

Mrs. Todesco gave a short but interesting paper on the early bus transportation along the North Shore. The first bus service was begun in the spring of 1947 by the International Transit Co. owned by the Hurtig family. After trial runs from Port Arthur to Terrace Bay, more buses were ordered and a daily return service was established in the fall of 1947. The fare then was $8.50.

Mr. Nelson Smith, a veteran of the First World War, gave an interesting account of his experiences, both sad and humorous, during his years both in France and England.

Michael Reid, Public Health Inspector, described his duties in maintaining control of cleanliness and sanitation in public buildings and the general community by regular inspections and testing of food products and water.

Mrs. Todesco thanked Mr. Smith and Mr. Reid for their talks.

Mrs. Darlene Costa was welcomed as a new member.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Mavis Slater and Mrs. Todesco. A penny auction was enjoyed by members.

SOCIAL: D'Arcy Furlonger and Gordon Ross were in Minneapolis last week to see the "Islanders" and the North Stars play.

C.W.L. CHRISTMAS BAZAAR-TEA SUCCESSFUL

Mrs. Teresa Stortini presided for the Catholic Women's League regular meeting on November 14, Father F.J. Meyer conducting the devotional period. Father Meyer also reminded members of the confirmation service on Nov. 21 adding that Bishop J. O'Mara will be here to conduct the confirmation and address members on "Focus on Faith" at a meeting being held in Terrace Bay on the same afternoon.

Mrs. Teresa Power, Organization convener, reported there are now 185 regular and one honorary member in the local C.W.L.

Mrs. Lucette Chicoine, Cultural Life convener stated there will be a coffee hour in the Parish Centre following the confirmation.

Mrs. Simmone Connelly, Social and Economic convener reported the C.W.L. wreath on Remembrance day had been laid by Mrs. Rena Ross.

Mrs. Gloria Mullins, Resolutions and Legislation convener advised members to have any resolutions in to the diocesan convener by December 15th.

A report on the Guides and Brownies was given by Mrs. Kay Stefurak, Christian Family Life convener.

Mrs. Mary Fummerton, over-all convener for the recent Christmas bazaar-tea, thanked C.W.L. members and others in the parish whose donations and work had made the event so successful. Draws at the tea had been won as follows: the crocheted couch throw - by Mrs. Addie Smith dark fruitcake by Mrs. Sharon Lamoureaux, light fruit cake by Mrs. Simonne Singleton, and door prize by Mrs. Pattie Quinton.

Mrs. Stortini gave an account of a leadership course she and Mrs. Norah McGuire had attended at Arvida Centre on October 16th.

Copies of the Act of Consecration to the Blessed Virgin have been sent to all members and it is hoped all members will repeat this prayer each noon hour.

Following the December meeting there will be a Christmas party with gifts exchanged and the value of these was set at $2.00

Mr. P. Gillen, Director of Education North of Superior S.S. Board gave an interesting talk on the formation of the Board and its goals for the next few years.

Mr. Gillen was introduced by Father Meyer and thanked by Mrs. Teresa Stortini who presented a gift to him.

A social hour followed the meeting with lunch being served.
