HALE & BRASSARD CANDIDATES FOR REEVE

James (Curly) Hale

Cy Brassard

On Monday, December 6th, Terrace Bay residents will vote for a new Reeve. The two candidates are both presently Town Councillors and active members of the community. The Terrace Bay News attempted to interview the two nominees but unfortunately Curly Hale was not available for interview. However, Cy Brassard was reached and his conversation is included.

Cy Brassard, an Electrician at Kimberly-Clark has been a resident of Terrace Bay for twenty-two years. Originally from Rosspport, Cy attended school in Thunder Bay and North Bay before coming to Terrace Bay.

Cy is married to Lillian Brassard and they have two children - Karen 7 and Richard 5. Lillian is also employed at Kimberly-Clark.

During his councillorship of four years Cy has chaired the Hydro, Police, Fire, Public Works and the Recreation Committees.

A member of the Legion and the Moose, Cy is also involved in The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers through his job at the Mill. (Cont'd pg. 3..)
