Eleven new Brownies were enrolled in the Terrace Bay Pack Thursday, Dec. 2nd in a delightful ceremony directed by Commissioner Marilyn Saranpaa, Brown Owl Barbara Wise and Tawny Owl Gail Pollard.

The eleven "Tweenies" (girls at the in-between age before Brownies) took part in a candlelight ceremony attended by their parents. Each tweenie came up the stepping stone path to view themselves in the magic pool. When questioned by Commissioner Saranpaa they proudly made the Brownie sign and gave the Brownie Promise. Having been accepted into the Terrace Bay Brownie Pack they were presented with their tie and pin by Barbara Wise

The theme of the ceremony was "Four Seasons", Fall, Winter, Spring and Summer and the girls themselves provided most of the decorations. Snowflakes, butterflies, leaves, candles and real flowers lined the stepping stone path and circled the magic pool.

After completion of the ceremony Barbara Wise welcomed the parents and explained the preparation done by the Tweenies and the actual meaning of the step from Tweenie to Brownie.

Kim Bryson presented Commissioner Saranpaa with a bouquet of pink carnations on behalf of the Brownies in appreciation for her help and guidance to the Pack. Commissioner Saranpaa, previously a Brownie leader is now leader of the Guides, however; she still lends a supportive hand to the Brownie Pack.

Lively games including the parents completed the enrollment.

The evening concluded with the Golden Hand girls serving tea, coffee and cookies they had made themselves at Tawny Owl's home.
