

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE DECEMBER MEETING

Members of the Women's Institute brought Christmas cards to their December meeting to be sent to older, and shut-in citizens. The motto for the meeting was "Show our love to others, as it is free to give".

Members agreed to send a box of apples to Birchwood Terrace as a Christmas gift and pay a group visit after New Year's.

Correspondence was read from The Bazaar and Novelty Company, Canadian Save the Childrens Fund and the Consumer Contact.

Mrs. Winnie Campbell stated the $25.00 draw will be made at the January meeting.

Mrs. Winnie Clemens, citizenship convener, read a paper on the life and service of Miss Ethel Chapman, the well-known Canadian author, who had written many books and articles for farm magazines and Women's Institute periodicals. She had received various honours and medals for her contributions to the welfare of farm people as well as the University of Guelph where she was a Board member.

Mrs. Anne Todesco, who presided for the meeting, gave an interesting report of the District Directors Meeting in Thunder Bay. The District Meeting of Thunder Bay North will be held in Schreiber on May 18th and preliminary plans for this event were discussed.

At the Tuesday, January 11th meeting, members will exchange gifts and enjoy a pot luck supper at 5:00 p.m. In addition to members, an invitations will be extended to husbands of members and secretaries of other organizations.

The attendance prize was won by Mrs. Annie Niemi and lunch was served by Mrs. Clemens and Mrs. Mavis Slater.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE DECEMBER MEETING

Lorette McParland presided for the regular December meeting of the Catholic Women's League with Rita McGrath giving a special Christmas reading.

Marion Henri read minutes of past regular and executive meeting, and Lorleen Blais read several letters of appreciation for cards and a special letter from the family in India which has been sponsored for some years by the Schreiber C.W.L.

A $500.00 donation was made to the Parish Building Fund Maintenance Fund.

Mrs. McParland asked as many members as possible to accompany her to the C.W.L. Christmas gift giving to Birchwood Terrace.

It was decided to forego a meeting in January.

Five copies of T.V. Ratings for Children was placed on order.

There was a discussion of possibly having a tea and bake sale on March 17th.

Following the meeting, the Christmas party was held with exchange of gifts, a carol singing and unexpected presence of Santa. A lunch of special Christmas foods was served.
