

LEMIEUX:

The funeral Mass for the late Mrs. George Lemieux, whose death at the age of 89, occurred on December 28, 1976 was conducted on December 31st in Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church in Schreiber, by Father F.J. Meyers. Ted Ross, grandson of the deceased was the organist for the service.

The pall bearers, all grandsons, were Lorne Bourke, Gene Ross, Doug Ross, Gordon Ross, Larry St. Jean and Leon St. Jean.

Interment was in Schreiber cemetery.

Mrs. Lemieux was predeceased by her husband in 1937, a daughter, Olive, Mrs. Cecil Snyder of Ottawa in 1967, a granddaughter and great grandson.

Her immediate survivors are three daughters - Rena, Mrs. Borden Ross, Valerie, Mrs. Larry Bourke and Emelienne, Mrs. John St. Jean of Schreiber; one son - Gerard of Burnaby, B.C.; one stepson Arthur Lemieux of Schreiber and two stepdaughters - Jeanette, Mrs. Oscar Paradis of Sudbury and Marie, Mrs. J.L. Stinson of Sarnia. There are also, thirty-seven grandchildren and several great grandchildren.

Mrs. Lemieux, born Emilie Boivin, in Rimouski, Quebec came from there to Schreiber immediately after her marriage to Mr. Lemieux in 1918. With her vibrant personality, she at once established her own particular niche in the town - faithful to her church and friends, and with a particular enjoyment and involvement with witty comments on town affairs which will leave a void.

Due to failing health Mrs. Lemieux had been in the Birchwood Terrace Home since March 1974; where her old friends were happy to visit her.

In Addition to the many friends from Schreiber, Rosspoint and Terrace Bay attending the funeral were the following relatives - Gerard Lemieux, Burnaby, B.C.; Mrs. Jeanette Paradis, Sudbury; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Cocks, Thunder Bay and Mr. and Mrs. Len Munro from Ottawa.

UNITED CHURCH WOMEN ELECT OFFICERS

The Schreiber United Church Women held their January meeting on the 5th preceding it with a potluck supper.

Mrs. Beth Macadam welcomed two guests, Mrs. Frank Walker of Schreiber and Mrs. Mary Ellen Bouchie of Kamloops, B.C.

Mrs. Helen Wallace read the Scripture and Mrs. Macadam an article on the meaning of the New Year.

Mrs. Winnie Clemens read correspondence which included Christmas cards from former members now living elsewhere and several notes of appreciation and acknowledgement from the John Milton Society for the Blind for a donation sent to them.

A request for assistance from the Prairie Christian Training Centre in Saskatchewan was filed for further discussion.

Members agreed to pay the annual allocation fee and also half of the expense bill presented by the United Church and Anglican Sunday schools.

Miss Gwen Hadley gave full reports of the recent Christmas tea and bazaar. Mrs. Annie Niemi, sewing convener, thanked all members who donated articles and Mrs. Macadam thanked all those whose assistance and support had made the event so successful.

Mrs. Margaret Smith, Card Secretary, reported Christmas cards to elderly and sick and shut-in people.

A group visit to Birchwood Terrace was planned for February.

The recording and financial secretaries were asked to have annual reports ready for the congregational meeting on January 23rd.

Tickets are still on sale on the quilt which is on display in the Chimo Club and the draw will be made later this month.

In the election of officers - Mrs. Beth Macadam was returned as president; others are Mrs. Norma Fummerton - first vice president, Mrs. Marlene Doig - second vice president, Mrs. Margaret Spillane - Recording secretary, Miss Gwen Hadley - treasurer, Mrs. Bernice Jacomb and Mrs. Marguerite Gerow - auditors, Mrs. Margaret Spillane - Official Board representative, Mrs. Winnie Clemens and Mrs. Marlene Doig - program conveners, Mrs. Marguerite Gerow - tea convener, Mrs. Norma Fummerton - dinner convener.

Hostesses for the February meeting will be Mrs. Doig, Mrs. Della Moore and Mrs. Lilyan Christie.

Following the meeting an exchange of gifts and a social evening were enjoyed.
