When you're ready we can offer you more
BUT You'll never know till you ask

If you're about to get a job instead of more schooling, consider a business that gives you both. The Canadian Armed Forces teaches you a trade while you're working at it. Trades from radio operator to weapons technician . . . from electronics to medical assistants. And we pay you well while you're learning. $500 per month to start, increasing to $1000 per month after just 4 years experience. Consider the fringe benefits also available. 4 weeks annual vacation with pay, free medical and dental care, opportunities for travel and a very liberal pension plan. Add it all up and if you're ready
