

LOOKING BACK

25 YEARS AGO - APRIL 3, 1952

Vern Hopper found the range for a hefty 201 scratch game last night and Paul Pluta had the high scratch series with a nifty 522. Hopper was handicap champ with a 232 high game and 604 series. The Bears had the high team series with 2673 with the help of Shemanski's 521 series to hand the Orioles a 3 to 1 trimming, while the Electronics whitewashed the Engineers for four points, hitting the high team game of 950. 200's with handicap were posted by Hopper 214, Pattison 213, Shemanski 204, Ruzyski 216, Chopty 216, Boudreau 200, Pluta 212, Malashewski 226. Later in the evening a special exhibition was given by Warren Whitlinger, a bowling star from the Holy City.

SOFTBALL NOTES: Despite the dismal weather we have been having lately the spirits of the local softball enthusiasts have not been dampened one little bit. At the time of writing, it looks like an 8-team league for this coming summer.
