

LOOKING BACK

25 YEARS AGO - APRIL 24, 1952

Led by Joe Heenan, who was in top form Monday evening, the Consolidated Press beat out the Wings and Combustioners to obtain possession of the Dominion Catering Trophy. Special mention, I believe, should go to Joe (Fire Ball) Heenan and his 959 series. This gave Joe an average of 240 for the night which is nice bowling in any man's country. Congratulations for a good job done. Boys of the Press are P. Mazza, J. Heenan, M. Campbell, H. Boudreau, H. Solly, E. Grabowy and Joe Kennedy. The Sudslingers consist of J. Maurstad, W. Louk, W. Sitko, B. Hales, P. Diduch, D. Phillips and E. Oleksuk.

On Friday night all you fellas will have a real chance to show the "better half" that you are a real big sport. With this Friday being Ladies' Free night the admission to the dance is $1.00 whether she agrees to go with you or not.
