

REBEKAH LODGE - continued

The bake sale scheduled for Thursday, May 5th in Spadoni's Department Store will be convened by Mrs. Helen D'Arcy and Mrs. Bern Jacomb. Members please attach prices to their donations of baking.

Following the meeting the members enjoyed a social hour and penny sale. Mrs. Ivy Whitfield of Sapphire Rebekah Lodge accompanied Mrs. Buttars to the meeting.

Mrs. Eirene Harness won the attendance prize.

ROSSPORT SOCIAL SPECTRUM:

Mrs. Dave Mushquash, Mrs. Ron Lanigan and Mrs. Dave Iddison spent the weekend in Sioux Lookout with Peter Mushquash and his fiance Miss Cecile Antoinette Maskerine.

Thunder Bay visitors during the week were Mrs. Anne Todesco, Mrs. Eugene Gerow, Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schelling, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kenney.

George Bruley and son George Jr. of Thunder Bay visited their summer camp here and got in a spot of fishing.

The Pays Plat Indian Band sponsored a basket social on the weekend to raise funds to install oil heating in their church, the St. Jerome Roman Catholic Church. It proved very successful.

An executive meeting of the Water Association was held Sunday afternoon in the Rossport Trading Store building to hear the report of the UCANO convention held in Thunder Bay recently, compiled by the delegate Mrs. C.W. Todesco. Workshops attended were - Isolated Communities Assistance Fund, Corporation Papers for Community Organizations, Ministry of Health and Environment and Ontario Fire Marshall. It was decided to call a general meeting in the near future following certain information expected on corporation, surveying the water line or easement, etc.

RETIREMENT PARTY HONOURS PAT LEISANDER:

David Leisander and his sister Devona entertained at a retirement party Saturday evening in the Community Hall honouring their father Pat Leisander upon his retirement after twenty-six and a half years employment with the Terrace Bay Kimberly Clark pulpmill.

The evening started with a buffet dinner, served to their many relatives and friends. Mr. Leisander is an ardent fisherman. Mrs. Freda Duggan made and decorated a cake in his honour. It had a large fish made of the cake batter across the top and decorated in blue and white.

The hall was decorated in blue and white. David and Devona presented their mother Leona with a red rose corsage and a white boutonniere for the occasion.

Gilbert Gerow was master of ceremonies and on behalf of the relatives and friends presented Mr. Leisander with a purse of money, a large bar-be-que and linens. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gerow of Halifax and Mrs. Michael Gerow of Edmonton phoned their uncle on his happy occasion.

Following the dinner dancing was enjoyed to tapes and Mrs. Leisander playing many old time tunes on her hammond organ accompanied by Mrs. Joyce Lanigan and Mrs. Patsey Campbell on the guitars.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gerow, Mrs. Ida Cliff and Miss Mary McEwen, Mrs. V. Boustead, Thunder Bay; Gilbert Gerow of White River; Mr. and Mrs. Joe LeBlanc, Mrs. Fred Duggan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dugan, Jane Duggan and Pam Spikula, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moorey, all of Schreiber; Danny Legault, Thunder Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Ron Lanigan, Nipigon; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Legault, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Legault of Terrace Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Legault, Mrs. Anne Todesco, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gerow, Peter Gerow, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schelling, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Legault, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schelling, Mrs. Hilda Mushquash, Della Mushquash, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Iddison, Mac Hubelit, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Bouchard, Terry Anne Bouchard, Anna Bain, Laura Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gerow and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schroeder, Rossport.

ST. BERCHMAN'S ALTAR SOCIETY NEWS:

The Ladies Altar Society of St. Berchman's held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Todesco. The president Mrs. Camilla Legault chaired the meeting and led in the prayers and religious instructions. She welcomed the members after not having met for the past three months owing to the weather conditions and illness among the group. She also on behalf of the members extended a welcome to Mrs. Leona Leisander a former member back to the organization. Mrs. Leisander had recently returned to the community after having resided in Thunder Bay for several years.

Mrs. Schelling read the minutes which were approved as read on motions of Mrs. Prina Gerow and Mrs. Anne Todesco. Several thank you cards were read and filed.

continued page 15