PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY DAY

1977 05 02

On Monday 1977 05 02, the teachers from St. Hilary's in Red Rock, St. Edward's in Nipigon, St. Brigid's in Nakina, Our Lady of Lourdes in Manitouwadge, Holy Angels in Schreiber and St. Martin's met at St. Martin School in Terrace Bay for a Professional Development Day organized by the resource personnel in the system.

The school halls were decorated with posters and art work describing various musical practices and included a display of mathematics and music textbooks, reference materials and records.

The programme began at 09 15 with opening welcome and remarks by the Director of Education, Mr. P.M. Gillen. The teachers then proceeded to one of the following workshops for the morning: the primary teachers to, "The Slides, Flips, Turns and Jumps of Mathematics", with Anne Wilkes; the intermediate teachers to, "Exploring Sound", with Betty Hanley, and the special education teachers to, "Transformation Geometry", with Ed McCluskey; librarians to, "Book Banter", with Emma Molinski; French teachers to, "Share Your Stuff", with Gerry Rhodes, and special education teachers to, "Analysis of Reading Errors", with Brian Peters.

The afternoon concluded with musical entertainment provided by the St. Martin School Choir which performed, A Canadian Collage, and by the Ukulele Club which played and sang, "I Believe in Music" and "Five Foot Two". For the final song, the audience had a special treat - the teachers who had attended the Ukulele workshop in the morning joined the students in playing "He's Got the Whole World", with everyone invited to sing-a-long.

Judging by the smiles and comments made by the teachers in attendance, the day appears to have been a profitable one for all involved.
