

LOOKING BACK

25 YEARS AGO - MAY 8, 1952

The local Group Committee of Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs recently presented a very useful gift to the local hospital in the form of a specially built Hardwood Bookcase complete with sliding doors and castors. Not only will the case itself be extremely useful for using around the hospital, but so will the 70 new books that went with it. The presentation was made by Cubmaster R. Wills to C.E. Paget, Chairman of the Hospital Board.

Two 5-man teams picked from the hourly workers trimmed 2 teams made up of Salary workers in a grudge 10 Pin match last week. Led by Pluta's 499 and "Sore-Arm" Leon's 498 they blasted out a 4490 total to top the losers by 76 pins. Leon Checkryn had the high game of the evening 209 and the #2 Salary team had the small consolation of high team game 883. Lindskoog had high series for the evening 508. Other 200's were Lindskoog 207 and Pluta 202.

Doug Cruickshank, Mr. and Mrs. A. McIver and family of Port Arthur, and Mr. and Mrs. B. Himes and Linda of Fort William, were weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Marquis and family, Fort Garry Rd.
