

CHIMO CLUB MEETING

At the Chimo Club's meeting in Schreiber on May 20th, a moment's silence was observed in memory of the late Edmond Nicol and Harry Welbourne.

It was decided to invite Lionel Waghorn, the Terrace Bay druggist, to speak at the June meeting on drug substitution in medicines. Jack Stokes, MLA, will also be asked to speak.

Mrs. Etta Gray's application to become custodian of the Club was accepted.

The financial statements, and the New Horizon statement were adopted as read by W.T. Wallace and Mrs. Bernice Jacomb.

To mark Senior Citizens' Week, June 19 - 25, the Club will attend service in St. Andrew's United Church at 9:45 on June 19th.

At their annual Club visit to Birchwood Home this year the dinner will be provided by the Chimo Club.

The donation of a stove and dryer for the Club apartment from Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Holmes was gratefully accepted.

Norman McCuaig reported on renovations being done in the upstairs of the Club - the purchase of a new sweeper for the Club and some re-decorating.

The date of the Christmas bazaar was set for November 5th, with Beth Macadam and Winnie Campbell as co-conveners.

The June meeting will start with a potluck supper.

Mrs. Helen Wallace chaired the meeting with nineteen present.

Following the meeting a social evening was enjoyed, when winners at cards were Whist - Inez McCuaig, high; Mavis Slater, low; Bridge - Joe Campbell, high; Anne Needham, low.

Denis Neylon, Mrs. Kitty Corbett and Russell Macadam, brought prizes (to mark their birthdays) which were drawn.

Mrs. Aili Lehto, of Sault Ste Marie, a former member, was welcomed as a guest, bringing with her Mrs. Lillian Parent.

The floral arrangement, donated by Esther Birch, was won by Ann Needham.
