

FIRST COMMUNION: Continued from page 10

The liturgy was enhanced by the music provided by a group of school children singing and playing guitars, as well as the adult choir.

The children and their parents were invited to a social gathering in the Church hall following the Mass.

Special thanks go to Mrs. E. Falzetta for her work in preparing the children.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion, Br. 109, Schreiber, marked its 30th Anniversary with a dinner party.

Mrs. Addie Beaulieu, acting president, and other members of the Terrace Bay Legion Auxiliary and Mrs. Etta Gray of Thunder Bay were welcomed as guests.

There were forty attending the event. At the head table were Georgina Davis, president; Lorraine Weaver, past President; Ruth Hiller, first vice president; Earline Johnson, secretary; Edna Ross, treasurer; Brenda Harper, warden and Addie Beaulieu.

Daryl Lynn Weaver and Wendy Martin were given the pleasure of pinning the past president pin on their mother, Lorraine Weaver.

A special toast was given to Betty Ann McKenna, celebrating her 18th birthday and the other two young new members - Judy and Jane Davis. continued page 13
